62. Tenant agrees to give actual advance notice to any contractors, subcontractors, or suppliers of goods, labor, or services that such liens will not be valid and will take whatever additional steps that are necessary in order to keep the Property free of all liens resulting from construction done by or for the Tenant.

XXIII. DANGEROUS AND HAZARDOUS MATERIALS.

63. Tenant shall not keep or have on Premises any article or thing of a dangerous, flammable, or explosive nature that might substantially and unreasonably increase the danger of fire or explosion on the Premises, or that might be considered hazardous by a responsible insurance company, unless the prior written consent of Landlord is obtained and proof of adequate insurance protection is provided by Tenant to Landlord.

67. Such month-to-month tenancy will remain valid until such time as Landlord and Tenant, in writing, extend or renew the Lease for a specific term.

68. If Tenant becomes a month-to-month Tenant, Tenant must give 30 (thirty) days written notice to Landlord of Tenant's intent to surrender the Property. Landlord may terminate such a month-to-month tenancy at any time by serving Tenant written notice of termination or by other means permitted by applicable Alabama law. Tenant shall vacate the Property at Landlord's demand.

XXVI. DEFAULTS.

69. Tenant shall be in default of this Lease if Tenant fails to fulfill any lease obligation or term by which the Tenant is bound in this Lease.

70. Subject to any governing law that states otherwise, if Tenant fails to cure any financial obligation within 30 days, or any other obligation within 60 days after written notice of such default is provided by Landlord to Tenant, Landlord may take possession of the Premises without further notice (to the extent permitted by law), and without foreclosing Landlord's ability to recoup damages. Alternatively, Landlord may elect to cure any default themselves and the cost of such action shall be added to Tenant's financial obligations under this Lease.

71. Tenant shall pay all costs, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorney fees and expenses) suffered by Landlord as a direct result of Tenant's default. All sums of money or charges Tenant is required to pay under this Lease shall be additional rent, whether or not such sums or charges are designated as "additional rent."

74. The rights of the Parties under this Lease are cumulative and shall not be construed as exclusive unless otherwise required by state law.

XXIX. LANDLORD ACCESS TO PREMISES.

75. Subject to Tenant's consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), Landlord shall have the right to enter the Premises to make inspections, provide necessary services, or show the unit to prospective workers. However, Landlord does not assume any liability for the care or supervision of the Premises.

76. As provided by law, in case of an emergency, Landlord may enter the Premises without Tenant's prior consent.

77. If and when Tenant informs Landlord that they will not be exercising the purchase option, during the last three months of this Lease, or any extended period of this Lease, Landlord shall be allowed access to the Premises to display "To Let" signs and show the Premises to prospective future tenants.

XXX. INDEMNITY REGARDING USE OF PREMISES.

78. To the extent allowed by law, Tenant agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend Landlord from and against any and all losses, claims, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, if any, for which Landlord may suffer or incur in connection with Tenant's possession, use, or misuse of the Premises, except Landlord's own act or negligence.

79. However, Tenant shall not by this provision be required to make alterations to the exterior or structure of the building.

XXXII. AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT COMPLIANCE.

80. As dictated by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), all businesses that are open to the public or employ fifteen or more people require that the premises be accessible to individuals with disabilities. In the event that the premises must be altered for ADA compliance, the cost of improvements, alterations, and/or modifications necessary for compliance with the ADA shall be the responsibility of Landlord.

XXXIII. SUBLETTING AND ASSIGNMENTS.

81. Tenant may not assign or sublease any interest in the Premises, nor effect a change in the majority ownership of the Tenant (from the ownership existing at the inception of this lease), nor assign, mortgage, or pledge this Lease, without the prior express written consent of the Landlord, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

XXXIV. COUNTERPARTS.

82. This Lease may be executed in counterparts, all of which shall constitute a single agreement. If the dates set forth at the end of this document are different, this Lease is to be considered effective as of the date that both Parties have signed the agreement, which may be the later date.

XXXV. ENTIRE AGREEMENT.

83. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the Parties, and there are no other promises or conditions in any other agreement, whether oral or written, concerning the subject matter of this Agreement.

84. This Agreement supersedes any prior written or oral agreements between the Parties.

XXXVI. HEIRS AND ASSIGNS.

85. Tenant may not transfer or assign this Lease or any portion of this Lease to a third party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all covenants of this Lease shall succeed to and be binding upon any heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns of the parties.

XXXVII. SEVERABILITY.

86. If any provision of this Agreement will be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions will continue to be valid and enforceable.

87. If a court finds that any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, but that by limiting such provision it would become valid and enforceable, then such provision will be deemed to be written, construed, and enforced as so limited.

XXXVIII. AMENDMENT.

88. This Agreement may be modified or amended in writing, if the writing is signed by the Party obligated under the amendment.
